Hello Everyone,

We want to devote this entire newsletter to thanking you. Thank you for your prayers--for the many times that you have taken the time out of your day to take the names of Suzie and I, our children, our grandchildren and Bibles for the Blind to the Lord in prayer.

It is because of your prayers that we are alive and well and moving forward today. It is because of those prayers that the Bible still goes out the door to hungry braille-reading hands all over the world. It is because of those prayers that our equipment works as well as it does.

And we want to thank you for your giving. Many of you not only pray but you put feet to your prayers by helping us through your giving. Please let us say thank you!

We also want to thank you on behalf of the young man mentioned in the notes below. They came from a rescue mission in the state of New York:

Dear Keith,
Prayers have been said! I know Jesus will answer your needs! Also, thank you for sharing these stories... I am headed to see S---- tonight and I am taking the Bible to him! He wept when I told him about it... I can't wait to see his expression when he feels it for the first time! He said to me "please bring to me the precious letters of our brother Paul!" I'm bringing 2 other volumes tonight as well... Luke and Acts so he can read Luke with his son... we have been studying it together. THANK YOU for sharing Gods word with this lovely man. May God Bless your day!

Hello Keith!

Greetings to you! I went to see S---- last week and gave him the Bible your organization has provided for him! He was overjoyed!!!

For the first time since meeting S---- and his family we were able to read the Bible together and discuss! So wonderful! Thank you so much for blessing this humble man with the written Word! His church has asked him to speak using his new Bible!! So cool how God works!

I have been praising the Lord for the work you are doing to reach people with the living Word!

My heart is full.

In Christ's service for God's glory,

Keith Reedy, Director
